

ORDINANCE NO. 512
(AS AMENDED THROUGH 512.1)
AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE AMENDING ORDINANCE NO.
512 PROVIDING FOR ONE-WAY HIGHWAYS

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside, State of California, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to VC Section 21657, one-way highways requiring that all vehicles thereto be moved in one specified direction in the unincorporated areas of the County shall be established by resolution.

Section 2. The Transportation Director of Riverside County shall, on the streets so designated, place and maintain appropriate signs and other traffic markings at all intersections of roads so provided necessary to give notice of the one-way direction. No such regulation shall be effective until signs or markings are in place.

Section 3. Any person who violates the provisions of Section 1 of this ordinance is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $50.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding 5 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
